N.B.—The reason of so few discharges of bills of sale, &c., being registered is mainly owing to the difficulty of proving the certificate of satisfaction as required by the Act (No. 8 of 5th Vic.), viz., the acknowledgment by the mortgagee of his signature to the certificate of satisfaction or proof of execution by said mortgagee by one of two witnesses upon affidavit before the Registrar-General or his deputy. For this reason the greater portion are allowed to lapse.

* The great increase in the number is partly owing to the fact that Hire Agreements, Mortgages of Stock and Liens and Settlements are included.

* This is up to 31st March, 1879, when the new procedure under the "Supreme Court Act, 1878," came into operation.

† Several probates under the Intercolonial Probate Act were granted, for which the amount of the personal estate in the colony cannot be given, affidavits of the value of such estates not having been filed.

‡ Including grants (nineteen in number) issued by Courts in the other Australian Colonies and the United Kingdom, and sealed here under the Intercolonial Probate Act, but exclusive of second grants, as double probates and letters of administration with the will annexed de bonis non, the personal property effected by which was sworn when the first grants were taken out. Second grants are also omitted from the administrations in intestacies.

§ The note for 1887, altered, including the precise number of grants, applies for 1888.

NOTE.—This return does not show the net amounts of real and personal property under which estates are sworn for the purposes of the Probate and Succession Duty Acts.

* Loan raised by Colonisation Commissioners. + Aid from Imperial Government. ‡ Aid to Revenue by issue of Bonds and Treasury Bills.
§ Immigration ceased in these years. ¶ Deposit on Account of £250,000, Treasury Bills, under Act 418/87.
‖ Balance of net proceeds of sales of first instalment of Treasury Bills under Act 418/87.

NOTE.—Prior to 1851, all remittances to the Land and Emigration Commissioners were carried to account by the Colonial Treasurer as sums expended on immigration, and the receipts in England by the Land and Emigration Commissioners were never included in the accounts of the Colony—an adjustment of accounts was, however, made in the year 1853.

Reading-room (newspapers and periodicals) in the Institute Building.

The Reading-room contains all the South Australian newspapers, several of the leading newspapers from each of the other Australian colonies, and various English, Irish, and Scotch newspapers; also most of the best English periodicals.

The attendance cannot be given, as there are no means of registering it, but there is little doubt that it is greater than that in any other department of the institution.

Note.—The different departments are open to the public during the following hours, viz.:—

Public Library—Week days, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Museum (Summer)—Week days, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

* The inmates comprised in this return may be classed as follows, namely—Aged and infirm, sick and deserted children. No able-bodied person is at any time admitted into the Destitute Asylum.

† All the male adults specified in this return were relieved in consequence of sickness, on a medical certificate. Many of the females received out-door relief from similar causes. The remainder, with the whole of the children enumerated in the table, were relieved in consequence either of the death of the husband, or the desertion of the family by the husband, or the absence of husband in search of employment.

‡ These numbers include the relief granted in country districts through the auxiliary boards, which are not included in any previous year in the above returns.

‖ Exclusive of children under control of State Children's Council, which are included in previous years.

Note.—The numbers under the different nationalities in the Out-door are only approximate.

[1] The areas here given, except in the case of New Zealand, are the results of planimetrical calculations made in the office of the Surveyor-General, Melbourne. Except in the case of Western Australia, the area of which differs from the official estimate by 84,000 square miles, these results agree closely with the figures furnished officially by the various colonies. The latest official statement of the area of New Zealand, including all islands, is 104,471 square miles. See also Victorian Year-Book, 1888-9, Vol. I., page 71.

[2] In making up the estimates of population in Victoria and New South Wales, allowance has been made for unrecorded emigration since the date of the last census (3rd April, 1881). If this had not been done, the population of Victoria would have been set down as 1,132,126, and that of New South Wales as 1,127,245. The allowance for 1888 was 5,269 in the case of Victoria, and 2,841 in that of New South Wales. South Australia and Queensland also made deductions in 1888 for unrecorded emigration, the former of 5,889, the latter of a number not stated. Censuses were taken in New Zealand and Queensland in the early part of 1886, and, therefore, the populations of those colonies should be nearer the truth than those of the other colonies, which have taken no census since 1881. On the 30th June, 1889, the estimated population of Victoria was 1,104,288, viz., 587,682 males and 516,606 females; that of New South Wales was 1,105,720; South Australia, 315,281; Western Australia, 42,775; New Zealand, 612,032.

[3] Maoris are not included. On the 28th March, 1886, these numbered 41,969, viz., 22,840 males and 19,129 females.

NOTE.—Except in the case of Queensland—for which colony an estimate of the number of persons arriving and departing by railway has been included—the Immigration and Emigration in this table is by sea only. See second footnote to Table I. ante.

[1] The figures in these columns understate the truth. Many persons leave all the colonies by sea without their departure being noted.

[2] In consequence of the Emigration returns being defective, as stated in the last footnote, the figures in these columns are too high, except where the minus sign (−) appears indicating that the emigrants exceeded the immigrants by the number against which it is placed, when the figures are too low.

[3] According to Imperial returns, the number of persons who left the United Kingdom for the Australasian colonies in 1888 was 31,725, and the number who returned to the United Kingdom from these colonies was 10,632. The excess in favour of departures was thus 21,093, or less than one-third of the excess of immigrants over emigrants shown in the table.

NOTE.—The figures of revenue and expenditure for Victoria are for the twelve months ended 30th June, but those for the other colonies are for the calendar year. Refunds of revenue, drawbacks, and such similar entries, are rigidly excluded from the accounts of revenue and expenditure of Victoria and New Zealand, but are included in those of New South Wales and Queensland, also in those of some of the other colonies. See also Note 5.

[1] The amounts in this column are made up of Excise duties, including licences imposed for revenue purposes; duties on bank notes; stamps, other than those for fees of office; legacy, succession, and probate duties; property and income taxes; and any other impost, payable to the General Government, levied distinctly as a tax; but excluding fees, and charges for special services rendered.

[2] According to a statement made up in the Treasury, but not audited, the figures for Victoria during the year ended 30th June, 1889, were as follow:—Revenue from Customs, £2,879,830; other taxes, £853,830 (partly estimated); from Crown lands, £616,028; from Railways, £3,104,907; from Post and Telegraphs, £574,400 (estimated); from other sources, £647,086—Total revenue, £8,676,081. The estimated mean population of the same period was about 1,085,630; therefore the revenue per head was £7 19s. 10d.; and the taxation per head was £3 8s. 9d.

[3] The proportion of the revenue of Victoria and New Zealand derived from "Other Taxes" and "Post and Telegraphs" has been roughly estimated, there being no means of obtaining the exact figures.

[4] Exclusive of tramways. See footnote (1) to Table X, post. Revenue collected for Victoria for traffic beyond Albury (£20,202) is also excluded.

[5] Including revenue returned to the extent of at least £180,131—viz., £10,978, being repayments to credit of votes; £49,359, for drawbacks and refunds of duty; £20,202, railway revenue collected for the Victorian Government; about £99,592, being other revenue returned, &c.

[6] Excluding business licences, which in Queensland are classed under "Other Sources."

[7] Inclusive of revenue from gold-fields, £19,447.

[8] Including £229,125 property tax, collected in 1888 on account of 1887.

[9] In calculating the amounts for Victoria the mean population during the year 1887–8 (1,038,130) has been taken. For the other colonies, the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

NOTE.—For periods to which the figures relate in each colony, see Note to last table. For remarks in reference to the practice of swelling the returns of some of the colonies by including refunds of revenue, &c., on both sides of the account, see Note to last table.

[1] According to a statement made up in the Treasury, in July, 1889, the approximate expenditure of Victoria for the year 1888-9 was as follows:—Railways, £1,831,718; Post and Telegraphs, £536,709; Interest, &c., on Public Debt, £1,465,647; Other Services, £4,181,835. Total Expenditure, £8,015,909. The accounts have since been closed, and the result (unaudited) shows the actual expenditure to have been only £7,920,238, or £7 5s. 11d. per head of population.

[2] See footnote (5) to last table.

[3] Interest only.

[4] Exclusive of charges for the sinking fund, (viz., £263,200) formerly charged to revenue, but now met by debentures raised for the purpose.

[5] In calculating the amounts for Victoria, the mean population during the year 1887-8 (1,038,130) has been taken. For the other colonies the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

NOTE.—On the 30th June, 1889, the Public Debt of Victoria was £37,627,382. The estimated population at that date was 1,104,288, and the approximate revenue of the financial year ended with that date was £8,676,081. The debt was thus equal to £34 1s. 6d. per head, or to 4·34 years' revenue. Moreover, since the end of 1888 New South Wales has floated in London a fresh loan of £3,500,000, South Australia one of £1,317,800, Western Australia one of £100,000, and Tasmania one of £1,000,000.

[1] Included with other public works.
[2] Including £712,928, loans to local bodies.
[3] Including other buildings.
[4] The amount for Roads and Bridges is included with that for Harbours, &c.
[5] The figures set down as showing the objects for which the Public Debt of New Zealand was contracted represent the net expenditure out of the "Public Works Fund" since 1870—the date of the first Immigration and Public Works Loan—which is the only existing record of the loan expenditure; it is however stated that, besides loan moneys, receipts in aid from Stamp duties, &c., contributed somewhat towards the total sum so expended. The balance required to make up the total debt at the end of 1888 has been entered as "Unapportioned."
[6] In New Zealand, a portion of the expenditure on "Defences" is included under the head of "Harbours," &c., and a portion is under the head of "Unapportioned."
[7] The amount under this head was expended in New South Wales on public works on behalf of Queensland when it formed part of New South Wales; in South Australia on general public works for the Northern Territory; in New Zealand on land purchases (presumably from the Maoris), £1,150,360, and rates on native lands, £43,889, &c. From the amount returned for Tasmania, debentures redeemed, amounting to £95,700, have been deducted, since the purposes were not specified for which the original loans thereby paid off were raised.
[8] Consisting chiefly of unexpended balances; but of the amount for New South Wales £1,822,330 was for "Repayment of loans."
[9] As a set-off against the public debt, New Zealand possessed an accrued sinking fund amounting, on the 31st December, to £1,353,859: the net liability of that colony was, therefore, £36,971,691, or £60 17s. 6d. per head of population, equal to 9 times the revenue. The sinking funds possessed by the other colonies are comparatively small, consisting of the following amounts:—Victoria, £53,117; Western Australia, £65,854; Tasmania, £89,031. The amount of debt set down for South Australia is exclusive of Treasury bonds, £1,000,000.
[10] In calculating these results, the populations on the 31st December shown in the fifth column of Table I. have been used.
[11] In calculating these results, the figures of public revenue given in Table IV. have been used.
[12] Consisting of amounts spent out of the old provincial loans of New Zealand, prior to the abolition of provinces in 1876, loans not accounted for, and the unspent balances of loan moneys; also £1,021,472 for charges and expenses of raising loans. No particulars of the purposes to which the former were applied are available.

NOTE.—The figures are for the year ended 30th June, 1888, for Victoria; for that ended 31st March, 1889, for New Zealand; and for that ended 31st December for the other colonies. On the 30th June, 1889, the extent of lines opened in Victoria had increased to 2,200 miles, and the cost of construction to £29,363,560, whilst the gross receipts for 1888-9 amounted to £3,110,140, the working expenses to £1,945,837, and the net receipts to £1,164,303. The latter was equivalent to 4·11 per cent. of the mean capital cost.

[1] These columns do not include tramways, of which there were in Victoria, at the end of 1888, 31½ miles (chiefly cable) constructed by the Melbourne municipalities, but let to a private company; in New South Wales, 43⅛ miles (steam), constructed by Government at a capital cost of £907,987, the gross receipts from which amounted in 1888 to £241,838, and the working expenses to £217,629; in Queensland, 9 miles; and in Western Australia, constructed by timber companies, 100 miles. The cost of construction of the cable tramways of Victoria (including expenditure on lines in progress), at the end of 1888, was £1,314,802, and the receipts during the year amounted to £393,819. In New South Wales the Camden line, 7½ miles long, formerly a tramway, is now considered to be a railway.

[2] The calculations in this column are based on the mean of the amounts of capital cost at the beginning and end of the year.

[3] Including railways authorized.

[4] In Queensland the capital cost includes expenditure on lines in progress; and consequently the calculated average per mile will be above and the proportion of receipts to capital cost below the true proportion.

[5] This is the Great Southern Railway, constructed on the land-grant system.

[6] The minus (—) sign indicates a net loss, or excess of working expenses over receipts.

[7] Included with the Government lines in Tasmania are 133 miles guaranteed by the State, constructed at a cost of £1,188,316. The 48 miles of unguaranteed private lines in that colony cost £153,209. The receipts of these during the year amounted to £17,487, and the working expenses to £10,913.

[8] Of the Tasmanian lines, 45 miles have an additional rail, giving a 5ft. 3in. gauge as well for that portion.

[1] Subject to certain regulations and restrictions, newspapers posted in New South Wales, Queensland, and Tasmania, travel free to any of the Australasian colonies, and in Western Australia they travel free to places within the colony itself. In the other colonies a small postage fee is charged on newspapers.

[2] This probably includes commission on money orders in all the colonies.

[3] Approximate only. It is estimated that the total revenue of the Victorian Post Office, inclusive of Telegraphs, &c., was about £545,000, and if allowance were made for official correspondence and telegrams, which are transmitted without charge, the total would be increased to about £615,000.

[1] The purchase-money for selected land varies in the different colonies from 10s. to 30s. per acre, payable by annual instalments (often without interest) extending over a period of 10 or 20 years. For particulars of the terms and conditions under which such land is acquired, see Victorian Year-Book 1888-9, Vol. II., under the head of "Production."
[2] Including water area, amounting to about 2,000,000 acres.
[3] The area leased was 1,683,207 acres, the lessees of which, in certain cases, have option of purchase on certain conditions under the Land Act of 1884.
[4] This low average is explained by the circumstance that a large portion of the purchase money was previously paid as rent. The price of rural land is 10s. per acre.
[5] Approximate only.
[6] Of this area 54,643 acres were granted to Natives, or Europeans who purchased from them, under Native Land Acts.
[7] Including only that of which the purchase has been completed.
[8] Exclusive of the extent estimated to have been forfeited for non-fulfilment of conditions, &c.
[9] Including land granted without purchase.
[10] Included with the area "Sold."
[11] These figures relate partly to lands in respect to which Crown Grants have been issued either to the original Maori possessors, or to Europeans Maoris who have purchased from them, under certain Native Land Acts.
[12] Of this extent, about 14,000,000 acres belong to the Maoris, or to Europeans who have purchased from them; and 312,495 acres were held under "Perpetual Lease."

NOTE.—The State system of education is compulsory and undenominational (or secular) in all the colonies, and Western Australia is now the only colony which grants assistance to denominational schools. Public instruction is free in Victoria, Queensland, and New Zealand; but fees are charged in the other colonies, although they are partially or entirely remitted in cases where the parents are unable to pay them. The prescribed school age differs in the various colonies—in Victoria it is from 6 to 15 years, in New South Wales and Western Australia, from 6 to 14, in Queensland from 6 to 12, in South Australia and New Zealand from 7 to 13, and in Tasmania from 7 to 14 years. For a complete account of the educational systems of the various colonies, see Appendix to Victorian Year-Book 1888–9, Vol. II.

* Where asterisks occur, the figures have not been furnished or are incomplete.

[1] These figures have been estimated in the office of the Government Statist, Melbourne.

[2] Including 16 assisted schools.

[3] In previous years the amounts in this column were not on a uniform basis. Now it has been decided to include the whole cost of State (Primary) Education, exclusive only of expenditure on buildings (either for repairs or erection) and rent—including expenditure on Head Office staff and inspection.

[4] Portion of the amounts in this column are derived from Education Reserves, &c., viz., £12,935 in South Australia and £29,143 in New Zealand.

[5] For extra subjects only.

TABLE XV.—AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS, 1888-9.—LAND IN CULTIVATION.

 The Agricultural Statistics in most of the colonies are collected in the months of February or March of each year. The present returns are for those months of 1889. In calculating the rates of tillage per head, the population on the 31st December, 1888, has been taken.

NOTE.—Land in fallow is included in the total area under tillage in all the colonies, except New South Wales; but land under permanent artificial grasses is not included in Queensland, Western Australia, and New Zealand. See also Notes 2, 3, and 7.

[1] Including beans and pease, except in the case of New South Wales.

[2] In addition to crops sown for the purpose of being cut green for cattle, this column contains the following areas laid down in permanent artificial grass in the colonies named:—

Permanent Artificial Grass.

	Acres.
Victoria	184,991
New South Wales	200,332
South Australia	23,217
Western Australia	Only small area.
Tasmania	178,801

In Queensland, where it is not so included, the area returned is 7,592 acres. For extent of such land in New Zealand, see Note 7.

[3] In the returns of some of the colonies, this column embraces land in fallow as well as land under crop. The following are the areas in fallow included in the returns of such colonies:—

Land in Fallow.

[4] Rice.

[5] No Agricultural Statistics having been collected in South Australia in the last four years, the figures for 1884-5, except in regard to wheat, which have been estimated, have been again repeated for that colony.

[6] No account taken.

[7] In the figures for New Zealand, the land under permanent artificial grass, amounting to 6,228,655 acres—of which about one-half had been, and the other half had not been, previously ploughed—is not entered as green forage, nor is it included in the total area under tillage, as in the majority of the other colonies. Were the whole so placed, it would bring the land under tillage up to 7,693,974 acres, or to 12·66 acres per head of the population.

[1] These figures are made up of the sum of the total quantities exported from and used for manufactures in, less the quantities imported by, the respective colonies. The wool referred to is, of course, not homogeneous in quality, some being greasy and some washed and scoured. The Government Statistician of New South Wales has estimated that the equivalent weight in greasy wool of the whole clip for that colony was 269,739,000 lbs.

NOTE.—The figures for Victoria, New South Wales, and Queensland express the quantity and value of all the gold known to have been raised in those colonies since the period of its first discovery in Australia in 1851; those for South Australia are estimated chiefly from the returns of the Melbourne and Sydney Mints, and partly from the export returns; those for New Zealand express the total exports of gold from the earliest period; and those for Tasmania express the quantity known to have been raised since 1866, there being no record of the gold raised prior to that period. There are no reliable returns of the gold raised in Western Australia, although a considerable quantity has been obtained on the Kimberley gold-fields of that colony; the estimate for 1888 is very vague, and that for previous years being obtained from the Customs returns alone is much understated.

[1] The purity, and consequently the value, of gold varies considerably in different localities. In Victoria the average value is set down as £4 per oz., and in Queensland as £3 10s. per oz. Standard gold (i.e. 22 carats fine) is worth £3 17s. 10½d., and pure gold £4 4s. 11½d. per oz.

APPENDIX.

STATISTICS OF FIJI, 1878 TO 1888.

 Fiji consists of from 70 to 80 inhabited islands, the estimated area of which is 7,500 square miles. There are also about 150 smaller islands uninhabited. The total area of the group is estimated to be 7,740 square miles.

NOTE.—The following additional information has been supplied for the year 1888:—Birth rate, 37·54; Death rate, 33·77; Marriage rate, 7·7, per 1,000 persons living. Immigration—Unassisted (not included above), 513 in 1887, and 482 in 1888; Emigration, 798. Sources of Revenue—Customs duties, £24,571; other taxes, £19,652; Crown lands, £142; other sources, £20,653. Heads of Expenditure—Interest on public debt, £9,019; Post Office, &c., £764; Immigration, £4,698; other expenditure, £44,512. Public Debt—Of the public debt only £137,900 bears interest. Imports and Exports—Of the total value of Imports, £172,465 was from the Australasian Colonies, £43 from the United Kingdom, and £10,756 from other countries; and of the total value of Exports, £341,437 was to Australasian Colonies, and £35,531 to other countries; 98 per cent. of the exports were of Fijian production. Postal Returns—Number of offices, 36; letters, 189,174; newspapers, 170,788. State Education—Number of schools, 2; teachers, 5, viz., 2 males and 3 females; scholars on the rolls, 176, viz., 82 males and 94 females; average attendance, 165; cost, excluding buildings—contributed by State, £477, by parents in fees and rates, £686—total, £1,163. Agriculture—Land under cultivation (by whites only), 36,755 acres, of which 357 acres were under maize; 19,000 acres under cocoanuts; 13,800 acres under sugar-cane; 2,300 acres under bananas; 325 acres under tea; and 1,350 acres under cotton, coffee, tapioca, and other crops. The quantity of maize exported was 12,968 bushels, and probably as much more is consumed locally.

[1] It is believed by the Registrar-General of Fiji that the births, deaths, and marriages here given are less than those which actually occurred.

[2] The total area alienated at the end of 1888 was 405,550 acres, and the area unalienated about 4,500,000 acres. The amount realized by the State for sales of land to the end of 1888 was only £26,446, which, however, represents the price of but a small proportion of the acreage alienated. The majority of the grants issued were for lands acquired by whites and others previously to annexation, and these received their titles at the nominal price of One shilling.

[3] In addition to the live stock referred to in these columns, about 11,400 angora goats were kept on the islands.

[4] Returns from Europeans only.

[1] For latest information respecting the population of several of the colonies, see footnotes to Table I. post.

[2] The Revenue and Expenditure of Victoria in all the years specified, and of Queensland for the seven years 1876 to 1882 are for the twelve months ended 30th June. In other instances the information relates to the years ended 31st December. For later information respecting Victoria, see footnote (1) to Table IV., and footnote (1) to Table V. post.

[3] For later information respecting the Public Debts of some of the colonies, also respecting the "Accrued Sinking Fund of New Zealand," see General Note and also footnote (9) to Table VII., post.

[4] The figures relating to Victorian Railways for the last three years relate to the financial year ended 30th June; those for New Zealand Railways for the last two years are for the twelve months ended 31st March of the year following; in all other cases the figures relate to the calendar year. The figures for Western Australia relate to Government lines only, until 1886, for which year private lines also are included.

[5] Land under permanent artificial grass is not included in Queensland, Western Australia, and New Zealand. See note to Table XV., post.

[6] Including land in fallow in all the colonies, except New South Wales. See footnote (3) to Table XV., post.

[7] Prior to 1883, the Queensland shipping returns were unduly swelled by vessels being counted afresh at each port of call.

[8] Wheat and live stock estimated. The statistics have not been collected since 1884-5.
